FOURTH FEDERAL PENSION FORUM ANNOUNCED

Who should pay for pensions and how much? How serious are unfunded liabilities? What does private investment mean to a pension plan? These are a few of the questions that will be addressed at the fourth Federal Pension Forum, sponsored by the Senate Subcommittee on Civil Service, Post Office and General Services.

The pension forums are designed to assist the Committee in drafting a new Civil Service pension plan for the federal government. Experts from the private and public sector are invited to present papers of particular relevance to Congressional staff, employee representatives, consultants, banks, insurance companies and others.

The fourth forum will be at 9:30-4:00 on May 30, 1984 in SD-106. Speakers will include: Dr. Irwin Tepper, MIT; Ken Keene, Johnson & Higgins; Jim Curtis, Milliman and Robertson; Jon Fossel, Alliance Capital Management Corporation; Jerry Facciani, Professional Plan Administrators; Charles Tharp, Pension Benefit Guaranty Corp.
